DESERT COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

LIBRARY AND OTHER INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT SERVICES

Additional information on the Library can be found in the College of the Desert Catalog, Schedule of Classes and the College of the Desert website. Library Services are an integral part of the educational program.

As a measure of adequacy the library should review its collection against the recommended lists of materials for community college libraries, professional journals in all disciplines taught at the college, and current bibliographic publications. Broad objectives in selection of educational materials include:

- Providing materials that will enrich and support the curriculum
- Providing materials that will stimulate growth in factual knowledge
- Providing a background of information, which will enable students to make intelligent judgments in their daily lives
- Providing materials representative of the diversity of the District.
