G. GOVERNING BOARD

Student Trustee Estrada

Attended the Black History month event. He thoroughly enjoyed the event and loved to see flyers on the pLEDGE program.

He volunteered at the first FIND Food Bank in February. He worked with the office of student life and distributed food to 300-400 students.

He watched the 100 Years of Broadway. It was his first time at the McCallum Theater.

He was unable to attend the Loung Ung event but heard a lot of great things about it. Students spoke positively about the event and he heard it went great.

He stopped by the job fair between classes. It was a great event and he received wonderful feedback from students and it's what the students needed. He thanked Dr. Kelly Hall for a wonderful turnout.

Trustee Sanchez-Fulton

She heard great things about the Job Fair. She thinks it was a great event and she looks forward to attending these.

Sad she was unable to attend the Loung Ung event. She thanked Dr. Kinnamon for the book and heard it was a successful event.

She attended the 30th anniversary for Cal State San Bernardino event. She learned about their strategic master plan.

Attended the College of the Desert, Community Outreach Event and thanked Dr. Pamela Ralston for putting on these types events. She also thanked the community members for attending. She would like to see this again in Desert Hot Springs or the Mecca/Thermal location.

She recently made a visit to the Desert Hot Springs campus. She looks forward to receiving a report on further updates.

Attended the American Association of University Women. Lady Faculty members are apart of this organization. They are looking to create stem majors. She met fellow leaders in Palm Springs.

Congratulated the Roadrunner Athletics team on their recent game.

Mobile Food Bank and she addressed food scarcity issue and commented it's still a huge issue. She wants more outreach. She wants consideration for other campuses.

Attended the SCORE breakfast.

She concluded her report by reading a quote by John Quincy Adams.

Trustee Jandt

Attended the Citizens Bond Oversight Committee. First full meeting with all the positions are filled. He thanked Vice President Howell for arranging that. There was a question regarding the distribution of the annual report. Suggestion was made for potentially a newspaper report to get the word out.

Trustee Jandt attended a one day Governance Leadership Institute and Riverside Community College. He learned things about being an effective trustee and reported it was a great on day session.

He attended and introduced Loung Ung at the College of the Desert event. Would like to setup a scholarship for creative writing and may have some resources and will work with Dr. Pamela Ralston.

He attended Lee Ann Weaver's farewell reception in the Human Resources Office. He wishes her the success on her move to Chico.

Trustee Stefan

She had an eventful month.

Attended the SCORE Congressional Breakfast.

Attended the President's Circle reception.

Attended the Desert Waters Presentation at the Marks Art Center.

She mentioned College of the Desert has been going out to the local high schools and they also came to her school. She appreciates them doing so and preparing the students for their applications to College of the Desert. She is hopeful that some will qualify for pLEDGE.

She attended the ACCT Conference in Washington DC. She distributed a handout to each board member and noted what they should be considering for when they speak to legislators and others at the federal level. She brought their attention to the pale grant program which is year round. On the last day of the conference the new Secretary of Education.

Trustee Broughton

She is thrilled and excited that College of the Desert is the fastest growing community college. The need in the valley and district is huge but there are still more students to reach out to.

She thanked Trustee Sanchez for her drive towards the food scarcity issue. She thanked staff for working on solutions for getting programs started. She knows there is the needs for food programs on other campuses.

Trustee Broughton reminded everyone that its 57 miles to their high school. That may be a place where high school partnerships are more important and another thought she wanted to mention.

She applauded the outreach that is taking place with the K-12. She thanked everyone for working on it.

She heard great things about the College for the Desert job fair. She noted it showcased the career and workforce center. She is very proud to hear that news.

She thanked Lee Ann Weaver for her years of service at College of the Desert. She appreciated all the hard work and dedication.

IX. CLOSED SESSION: 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm
