For Text greater than five years old, list rationale:

This textbook is not yet five years old, but for future reference, this textbook may be more than five years old at some stage in the curriculum review process. This text is the primary textbook used for English literature survey courses, nationwide, and it is possible that the publisher may not revise it more often than every five years. In that case, I would argue that the content therein consists of literature and literary history, and there is very little that changes in these two areas of study, from year to year. Therefore, being more than five years old does not equate to being obsolete.

Class Size Maximum

30

Entrance Skills

Reading and writing about literary works using established literary analysis approaches and following MLA documentation guidelines.

Requisite Course Objectives

ENG 001A-Develop ideas coherently in writing through the drafting process.
 ENG 001A-Write thesis statements, topic sentences, and ideas in an organized way in essays.
 ENG 001A-Write essays with arguable theses and evidence from different types of sources.
 ENG 001A-Read, analyze, and interpret varied texts (e.g., literary, digital, visual).
 ENG 001A-Recognize and integrate creative elements of style (e.g., metaphor, analogy, voice, tone).
 ENG 001A-Use a variety of rhetorical strategies to write essays.
 ENG 001A-Compose texts with complex sentence structure and appropriate diction.
 ENG 001A-Correctly use MLA and/or APA documentation.

Course Content

- Selected literary works and writers of the major periods of English literature from the late Eighteenth Century through the present: Romantic Period, Victorian Period, and Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries
- Evolution of language and literature throughout the periods studied
- Historical, social, scientific, political, and aesthetic forces shaping later English literature
- Form, structure, and style of later English literary works
- Poetic and dramatic works from English literature from the Romantic period through the present
- Introduction to relevant literary criticism
- Discussion about literary canonization

Course Objectives

Objectives
Objective 1	Analyze and evaluate poetry, drama, and prose for literary elements and meaning.
Objective 2	Identify and articulate the relevant features of the historical thought and times that shaped the assigned literary works.
Objective 3	Compare and distinguish the salient characteristics of the literary periods under study.
Objective 4	Read and respond effectively to relevant critical opinions about literature.
Objective 5	Compose critical essays on the assigned literature, based upon close textual readings, investigations, and accepted critical practices.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, students will be able to:
Outcome 1	Read works of English literature spanning from the late Eighteenth Century through the present, and form a coherent narrative of the development of this literature across genres and literary historical periods.
Outcome 2	Compose analytic essays on the assigned literature, employing strong close-reading and essay-writing skills.
Outcome 3	Convincingly expound on the relationship between English literary history and the literature of other national contexts (e.g., American literature).

Methods of Instruction

Method	Please provide a description or examples of how each instructional method will be used in this course.
Lecture	Instructors will lecture on the historical, social, political, and/or aesthetic contexts that inform the literature that is being read.
Participation	Students will participate in class discussions, activities, and assignments.
Discussion	Students will engage in whole-class and smaller-group discussions about the topics covered in the class.
Collaborative/Team	Students will work in groups to delve into the more complex aspects of English literary works and the contexts in which they were composed.

Methods of Evaluation

Method	Please provide a description or examples of how each evaluation method will be used in this course.	Type of Assignment
Written homework	Students will regularly complete homework assignments, which may include reading, formal and informal writing, and analytic exercises. (100% of homework assignments will be completed out of class, by definition)	Out of Class Only
Guided/unguided journals	Students will produce detailed notes on the readings. (80% of journal-writing will be completed out of class; 20% in class)	In and Out of Class
Mid-term and final evaluations	Students may complete a midterm and/or final examination on relevant topics related to the novels assigned for the class. (These examinations/evaluations may be in-class or out-of-class.)	In and Out of Class
Student participation/contribution	Students will participate in class discussions and activities. (70% of participation will occur during class; 30% will occur outside of class)	In and Out of Class
College level or pre-collegiate essays	Students will write at least 3 essays, one or more of which may be in-class essays. (The proportion of out-of-class to in-class essays may vary from instructor to instructor.) Students will compose a minimum of 5000 words through formal writing assignments.	In and Out of Class

What will you be doing in the face-to-face sections of your course that necessitates a hybrid delivery vs a fully online delivery?

N/A (This course can be offered fully online. There is nothing that necessitates a hybrid delivery, although we may offer the course as a hybrid class.)

Instructional Materials and Resources

If you use any other technologies in addition to the college LMS, what other technologies will you use and how are you ensuring student data security?

N/A

If used, explain how specific materials and resources outside the LMS will be used to enhance student learning.

N/A

Effective Student/Faculty Contact

Which of the following methods of regular, timely, and effective student/faculty contact will be used in this course?

Within Course Management System:

Discussion forums with substantive instructor participation
Online quizzes and examinations
Private messages
Regular virtual office hours
Timely feedback and return of student work as specified in the syllabus
Video or audio feedback
Weekly announcements

External to Course Management System:

Direct e-mail
Telephone contact/voicemail

Briefly discuss how the selected strategies above will be used to maintain Regular Effective Contact in the course.

Students will regularly and frequently complete assignments in discussion forums and/or groups, and they will regularly and frequently submit formal writing assignments, so they will receive regular and frequent feedback from the instructor on these assignments.

If interacting with students outside the LMS, explain how additional interactions with students outside the LMS will enhance student learning.

Students have the opportunity to contact their instructor on the phone or through email, which gives them an extra avenue for getting feedback and assistance on course material. In addition, students may be directed to open-source audio and/or video material to supplement their learning.
