

Foreign Transcript Evaluation

College of the Desert's International Education Program welcomes international applicants who have already earned college or university credit outside of the United States. In some cases, previously completed international coursework may be used to help us determine the COD courses in which you are eligible to enroll. We may also be able to substitute some of your international higher education coursework for COD degree requirements. In order to make these determinations, we request that you submit a certified foreign transcript evaluation report to the International Education Program with your other application materials. The following are examples of institutions that provide fee-based foreign transcript evaluation services. COD does not promote working with any particular evaluation provider. This list is provided only as possible sources for this service. Please contact our office to confirm that the service you will use for foreign transcript evaluation will be approved by COD when you plan to apply.
